(A)

Back in Italy, Antonio told ①his friends about his good fortune. Luigi, the richest merchant in Genoa, heard the story and was jealous. "Cats are worthless," Luigi thought. "I'll bring the queen what is really valuable. I'm sure that the queen will give ②me more jewels." Luigi packed his ship with wonderful paintings and other works of art. He took the gifts to the island. To get a chance to meet the queen, he told the islanders a lie that he was a good friend of Antonio's.

(B)

③He became excited and hopeful. He was sure that he would receive more jewels than Antonio. After a while, the servant returned with a box, and the queen presented it to Luigi. When Luigi opened the box, he was speechless. There was a kitten in the box. "Antonio gave us the priceless cats, and we now have some kittens," said the queen.

(C)

"In return for the wonderful gifts ④you gave us, we want to give you what is most valuable to us." Luigi realized that, in the queen's mind, the kitten was worth far more than all the jewels in the world. He tried to look pleased with the gift. He knew that was the right thing to do. Luigi did not return home a richer man. But he was surely a wiser one.

(D)

When the queen heard about Luigi, she invited him to her palace for dinner. Before sitting down at the table, Luigi presented the queen with all ⑤his gifts, and the queen thanked him again and again. "I'll repay you with a priceless gift," said the queen. Luigi watched the queen whisper in a servant's ear.

20. 다음 글에 드러난 화자의 심경 변화로 가장 적절한 것은?

My parents were making me work on the neighborhood project. It was just the ugly, old, empty lot across from Johnny's Shop, full of wild plants, broken glass, and dirty trash. There were twenty of us ready to work that day. Mr. Hernandez said, "The only way to do it is just to start." We filled fifty trash bags with waste and pulled wild plants. At the end of the day, I had to admit the lot looked much better. On the weekends that followed, we made rows, planted flower and vegetable seeds, and watered them. The lettuce, beans, and tomatoes grew so fast. Lots of people in the neighborhood meet there to enjoy the sights and to talk together. Tonight, it suddenly hit me—what a good thing we did! I'm proud I have been a part of it. An ugly and dirty lot that people didn't like has become a pretty garden for everyone.

The Ig Nobel Prizes are awarded for discoveries that "first make one laugh and then think." They ㉠were started in 1991 by AIR magazine to increase people's interest in science by honoring the unusual and the imaginative.

The prizes are presented by real Nobel winners in Sanders Theater at Harvard University. The room is usually filled with people who are eager to cheer for the brave scientists with their "laughable" research.

The U.K. Navy won the Ig Nobel Prize for Peace in 2000. To save money, the Navy made its sailors ㉢to shout, "Bang!" instead of using real bombs. Is that funny enough for you ㉡to laugh out loud?

Not only the winners' fun studies but also the ceremony for the Ig Nobel Prizes ㉣makes people laugh. There are a number of interesting things that keep people from getting bored. The opening and closing speeches are just two words each: "Welcome. Welcome." and "Goodbye. Goodbye." If someone talks for too long, an eight-year-old girl called Miss Sweetie Poo shouts repeatedly, "Please stop! I'm bored." Each winner receives ten trillion Zimbabwean dollars, ㉤which is worth less than one U.S. dollar. Throwing paper planes is another fun tradition.
